How many of you have seen the foot scraper at the entrances of the barracks? How many of you know why they are there? How man of you know the use of them? Very few would appear.

When you enter the barracks spend a second or two scraping the mud from your shoe. The recent wet weather has made it fairly easy to pick up dirt and when you walk through the barracks you drop some all the way.

It is disheartering, when you are on sweeping detail and have cleaned the barrack so it really looks like something, to have ninty large issue shoes pound through and leave the floor in a condition worse than when you started.

Have a little consideration for the other fellow. None of you are in such a hurry that two seconds will make a vital difference. Take those two seconds and clean your shoes.

Following is an excerpt from an editorial appearing in the Sarasota Tribune for July 29. The editorial deals with the Civilian Conservation Corps in general and this extract concerns this company in particular.

"Indeed, so outstanding has been CCC services, both to the communityand to the men in it's ranks, that we hear voices raised every where to make it a permanent part of the government. Well does Sarasota know the quality of CCC work and the standard of CCC personnel, because citizens have come in frequent contact with the camp in the Myakka Park section. Of it we can honestly say nothing but good."

We wish to thank Mr. Stumpf for the expression of his opinion and hope that we shall continue to merit the high regard he has for this company and it's activitities.

RETURN of the MYAKKA

KING OF COW PEN SLOUGH

Tarzan is no longer Lord of the Myakka. Since Monday he has laid claim to the title of King of Cow Pen Slough.

His new residence is located just off the hard road right at the bridge spanning Cow Pen Slough. However he still plans to maintain his laundry service, visiting camp on Tuesdays and Fridays to collect and distribute clothes and also on pay days.

BORDER PATROL

Inspectors Strom and Pew of the Border Patrol were recent visitors to the camp. This was the second visit ot Inspector Strom, who as at his fi first visit gave a short talk on the work of the Border Service.

He spoke on Immigration and the restrictions placed upon it by the Government. He also spoke on the qualifications ne necessary for a alien to enter this country. He told of several of his experiences with unlawful entrants and wanted crim-

RIVER RISES FIVE FEET IN TWO DAYS

The beautiful Myakka River has come back to life again, after a long period of dry weather.

The rainy season has restored it's life to the point of flowing, to the joy of Company 1421.

Last Sunday it rose to such a height that it had to have freedom and that dam at the upper lake was an obstacle to be overcome, which was done. Now it is flowing leisurly down it's old trail to finally merge with the Gulf, the trail that it has traveled for many years

At the present the average depth is about seven feet and it is continually rising.

Fish are rather scarce at the present time, but we hope that they will soon become plentiful as they have been, so we can enjoy fishing as well as swimming when the water becomes slightly higher.

PORTRAIT OF A MAN

Francis Scarbrough, one of our ablest young assistant leaders was born in Macon Georgia, but when he became old enough to acquire some of that good horse-sense for which he is noted., he came to Florida. That was in 1915, he was born in 1912, I've got a lots of other numbers too, but those two will do. He started to work at twelve and attended school for recreation, skipping the third and sixth grade he ought to be a rated man. He finished his high school education or it has finished him. Anyway he was imployed as an interior decorator at the "Capitol Theatre" and "Arcade " two of the most beautiful buildings in Atlanta.
Ques. Anything else Mr. Scarbrough?
Ans. I caddied for Bobby Jones.

Scarbrough packed peaches in North Carlonia one summer but he won't say wheather it was the fruit or feminine variety, He liked the girls and Holy Roller Church better than any thing else there.
Ques. Have you traveled very much Mr. Scarbrough?
Ans. Yes I've gone around quite a bit.
"Especially since you met that cutie in Arcadia", pipes up some voice from the rear. Scarbrough thinks traveling is an advantage for experience and education but believes a job seeker has more chances of securing employment if he stays in one locality. His avocations are dancing, dateing and recently droping heavy logs on his feet. But he can take it. He is as versatile as he is well, to avoid a A.K'ing He is as versatile as versatile. And better yet he is dern good guy!

What do you get out of this Doug.

inals

Captain Fabian closed the meeting with a short address stressing the qualifications necessary to obtain a passport to visit foreign countries and the advantages of education as well as the dangers of cummunisim.

If Johnson is trying to raise a beard why not make a beard instead of elongated sideburns.

It looks as if quite a few of the new boys cant take the woods.

RATTLERS LOSE TWO

The Vetrean camp at Mulberry took two close and exiting games from the Rattlers last Saturday.

The first game was not decided until the sixth inning when Quesada allowed two hits after being hit in the back by an opposing player. He was knocked down and it seemed that he couldn't finish the game but he was able to continue after a few minutes.

The second game was not as close as Brown, the opposing hurler, hit a double in the second inning to drive in two runs for his only hit of the game.

The game was all Mulberry until the last of the seventh when Jenkins singled and came home on an error. Then E. B. Smith hit a long triple and Quintana walked with nobody away. Brooks laid down a bunt and Smith was caught at the plate for two away to end the rally.

The score by innings:

First Game		R	H	E
MYAKKA	100 000 0	1	6	4
MULBERRY	000 101 X	2	4	2

Second Game
MYAKKA	000 000 1	1	4	3
MULBERRY	020 200 0	4	9	2

RATTLERS PLAY SEBRING

To-day at Payne Park in Sarasota the Rattlers play the strong Sebring team. The game will be close and hard fought as the Sebring team needs the win to go to Miami and the Rattlers are determined to win. Quesada will take the mound for the locals with E. Smith behind the bat and will be hurt by the lost of "Beans" Smith.

N.B. SNITH HURT

"Beans" Smith regular catcher for the Rattlers was hurt in Saturday's game with the Veterns when Campbell attempted to come home on a bunt.

The team hopes he will have a good rest. Good luck "Beans" old boy.

PING PONG

At last it looks as if the miniture tennis players will have a little action soon. Plans have been made for the staging of a table tennis tournament and six entries have been received so far.

The coming meet will be an elimination affair with a round-robin tourney in the offing.

A CARD OF THANKS BY LYING BILL

I sincerely wish to thank the members of our camp for their support in the recent election.

During my campaign I promised never to tell the truth--Should I? You may rest asured I will do my best to uphold the title that so generously bestored on me.

I feel that it was an uneven race because I have had more years experience in lying than my opponents. Should they keep up their present rate of lying until they are as old as I, they will have me beaten.

If the voters had considered Shortie Arrington, Dopy Wilson, Red Philips, Dirty Shirt Williams I would not have the crown.

Really I do not lie, that is not much, just a little now and then, and that is for the benefit of those that do not believe me. Sometimes it pays to lie. Once I went before the county Judge. I started off lying and would have gotten thirty days, only he said I lied so fast he could not catch me and gave me sixty instead.

Now Kelly you need not laugh for got nonty days for the same offence

NEWS FROM PENNY FARMS

We have just seen the first issue of the Cat Face, camp paper of Company 1431, located at Green Cove Springs, the old home of this company.

Company 1431 was organized at Fort Benning May 20, 1938 composed entirely of Alabama boys.On June 27 the company was dispatched to Bronson, Fla. where Florida replacements started to trickle in.

-Old Town*

Later the company was transferred to Old Town on the Suwannee River where the last of the Alabama boys were discharged. On This last May 21 the company was again moved to it's present location at Penny Farms.

-Forrestor's Quarters-

Here are a few items which may interest some of the older members of this company;

The house at the entrance of the camp which served as Forrestor's quarters for Co-1421 is now being used for the Educational Department Two of the rooms are being used for classes. Onehouses the library and another contains the radio while the remaining room is used for sleeping quarters.

All the Minorcan Chasers who remain with this company might as

That picture on the front page sure makes the Wop proud. He always wanted to have curley hair. It looks like a before and after picture to us however.

Someone has said that the boys in Barrack One do not even know the meaning of 'Gripe' or 'Gripper

We wonder when and where Buddy had that shanty hung on his eye.

Did you know that Red Durdeen's ambition is to be an aviator. He swears that if he ever gets a..pla plane of the ground he will be su sure to bring it down.

Rinker and Morton are sticking to turtles. They claim that there are too many mosquitos in Bee Rid Ridge.

The truck drivers still hold their meetings in the clubhouse of the R. K. O. L.

Kelly still wonders what became of Heart Throbs.

Consomme Bell is back in the kitchen again. Sunday we will all be partaking of his favorite dish.

We hope those boys enjoyed clean-up Saturday.

We wonder what has become of all our operatives in Sarasota and Arcadia. If they do not send in any contributions we will probably have to write the paper our selves.

Yoo hoo Sariy. Look at me here smoking.

Earl knocked out Nilo with one of Frenchy's Biscuts.

You could tell that Wednesday was pay day. No one had his fingers trampled on reaching for an inch and a half duck.

Sanders has bestowed his gold brick title to Goss who has promised to do his best to merit it.

We had a visitor to camp Saturday and McCullers was walking around on his heels.

Friday afternoon it looked as if the age limit had been lowered as well as raised.

It really looked like a baseball team Saturday. Nice going.

Bathing shorts look alright but most of the guys who wear them around camp would look better with all their clothes on.

Company 1431 is also planning a dance in the near future and Lake Kingsley still receives it's quota of bathers.

CONVIENCE

A roof has been erected over the boiler where the boys wash their mess kits. The boiler itself has been put on a new brick foundation, placing it slightly lowere than it formerly was.

FORMER ENROLLEES

Form letters received several former enrollees of this company are making out ratherwell.

Eddie Gonzalez is working in Tampa, driving a truck.

Bo. baseball star of this outfit was to receive a tryout with a team from Ft. Myers as a pitcher.

Charles M. Silcox and Harry Graf attempted to enlist in the Coast Guard at Atlanta, but found that Service was acceppting no enlistments. Silcox later tryed for the Navy but failed due to a cataract.

NEW CONTEST

The contest this week is to determine the most popular boy in camp.

Due to a dispute concerning last weeks contest no vote will be considered unless signed by the voter.

Last week's contest brought in more votes than the proceeding one and was a closer contest, and we expect to receive more votes in this one.
